

Project Planning Page

This sheet is a planning page. For homework, you may jot down phrases or incomplete sentences. Or, use a different sheet to write out your thoughts if you need more space. The important thing is to discuss your ideas with an adult. Remember, you have till next week to complete this page.

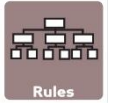

Big Idea- Who are you?

What is one object you can use to demonstrate your personality?

Details- What are three to four fun things about you?

What are some rules you live by?

What important words describe you?

One day, what major goal would you like to accomplish?

What is something you know you are good at? How do you know?

What is something you don't think you are good at?

What is something that makes you smile?

What is something that makes you worry?
