

Our Learning Contract

Dear Student and Parents,

As we begin this journey, we will be working independently, in partners, and groups. During class, we will use a variety of technology and tools. We will need some guidelines to help our adventure go as smoothly as possible. By signing this contract, you agree to be a leader in our room by trying your best to do the following:

- Be proactive: You agree to take responsibility for your actions, your things, and your time.
- Put first things first: Projects are the absolute best way to learn in your teacher's mind. 😊 During our time together, you will do many things that are fun, new, and exciting. But, you have to remember you are here first to learn (and a very close) second to have a spectacular time!
- Think win-win: As a class, we won't always agree on everything. But, you DO agree to work together to accomplish our goals in a respectful way.
- Use technology and tools well: You agree to use our devices, search engines (like Google), and apps in positive, appropriate, and safe ways.
